1.1 Background

RECCo presented the proposed changes to the Address Prioritisation Matrix (APM) to the Performance Assurance Board on 29 September 2026 (paper RECPAB_26_2909_03). The paper set out that the proposed Category 3 Change Proposal would update the APM outcome status list following feedback from Distribution Network Operators (DNOs).

The Category 3 Change Proposal C3-0172 – Address Prioritisation Matrix new outcomes status, was issued for a Party consultation and is now presented to PAB to request approval of RECCo's recommendation.

1.2 Summary of Consultation Responses

In total four responses were received from DNOs and one response received from an Electricity Supplier. All five respondents agreed with the proposed changes to the APM and the proposed implementation date of 06 November 2026.

1.3 Legal Text Changes

One DNO recommended changes to the legal text, but these have not been taken forward as the updates were made following live examples. As such, no amendments to the proposed solution have been made following the industry consultation.

1.4 Implementation date

Subject to PAB's approval, C3-0172 will be implemented on 06 November 2026 to allow the APM to be updated before first reports are issued to DNOs the week commencing 09 November.

1.5 Code Manager Recommendation

RECCo recommends C3-0172 is approved and implemented on 06 November 2026.
